

Local Driver

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Point to Point Transportation (P2P) delivers peace of mind with custom shipping solutions for corporate events. With a 30 year track record, 160+ customers like Microsoft, Sony PlayStation and Starbucks trust P2P for custom solutions and proactive communication to make the them look good.

Corporate event managers know that big corporate events and tradeshow are more complex and unique than what a UPS/FedEx can handle. Complexities may include: Corporate venue delivery specifics, odd size items to ship, temporary warehousing, and shipping troubleshooting by people who actually understand what should happen. As an extension of large company agencies and internal event teams, P2P handles ALL the distraction and chaos of getting stuff there. As a result, companies can focus on delivering a great event experience.

As the national leader and trusted partner, 90% of P2P's projects involve owning the custom shipping solutions for large corporate events (Microsoft Ignite / PSX / DOTA). The other 10% of projects are helping companies outsource shipping and event logistics while attending a large conference or trade show (CES / E3). P2P's team of 25 employees at their Belltown office (downtown Seattle) enjoy the chance to make a difference, work on cool corporate events, be challenged and part of a fun team that is growing to meet demand. Our culture is fun and dynamic – we thrive on a team mindset, being puzzle solvers and having a competitive spirit, all while not taking ourselves too seriously. The result is delivering peace of mind to our clients all the time.

Join P2P and be an ultimate sidekick.
